

6/08/09

MEDIA RELEASE

COME AND TASTE THE UNIQUE TASTES OF THE GOULBURN

Finalist
2005 Victorian
Tourism Awards

Finalist
2006 Victorian
Tourism Awards

Finalist
2007 Victorian
Tourism Awards

"The Secret's out" come and sample our region's finest fare.

Tastes of the Goulburn our region's newest food & wine festival along side of the Seymour Railway Station on Station Street on 17th October, the festival allows winemakers, restaurateurs and producers to showcase their uniqueness.

Come and celebrate all the good things of life, together with the era of Heritage Trains. Held over the same weekend as the Seymour Cup horse racing.

This region boasts four wine districts, including the Upper Goulburn Wine Growers Association, The Nagambie Lakes Wines, Strathbogie Wine Growers Association, and Goulburn Valley Wine Association.

Enjoy lots that Seymour has to offer:

On Saturday 17th October 2009 in Station Street Seymour (along side the Seymour Railway Station).

10am – 4pm

Regional Wineries

Gourmet Foods & Produce Treats

Come and enjoy regional entertainment while sampling our wines and tasting our treats

All for a $5, and a $12 Tasting Glass.

Story time, face painting, carnival rides. Heaps for the Kids to enjoy

Pavement Art from Seymour Primary Schools

Heritage Train Rides - take a low cost train ride from $6.

Tastes of the Goulburn committee members are made up of volunteer representatives from Seymour Agricultural & Pastoral Society, Seymour Goulburn Lions, Seymour Apex, Seymour Lions, Seymour Rotary, Seymour Business & Tourism, Seymour Railway Heritage Society with Ag Society Victorian Wines Show Representatives.

Tastes of the Goulburn has been named among the best in its field, being named a finalist in the Significant Festivals, & Events category at the Melbourne Airport Victorian Tourism Awards in 2005, 2006 and again in 2007. Our volunteer committee is very excited about this recognition and thank the support from Mitchell Shire Council, along with the support of V/Line.

This support and sponsorship enables Tastes of the Goulburn to be built into a showcase event that promotes our region to the broader community. To participate as a regional site holder contact Glenys Lejins – Promote your produce, wines or crafts.

With the various activities on during this weekend there is something for everyone "Wines & Foods and much more than Jazz, to Heritage Train Rides, cultural art displays & wine and food master classes - there is no excuse for not participating and asking friends and family from afar to see what a wonderful region we really do have.

Information from the Seymour Visitors Centre on 03 57990233

For further information call:

Bronwyn Allen
Ph 03) 57923952
email allenbf@dodo.com.au
www.tastesofthegoulburn.org.au

Glenys Lejins
Ph 03) 57923950
Ph / Fax 03) 57923675
email lejinsgp@dodo.com.au

Postal address:

P.O Box 6, Seymour. 3661